Ms Billington

January 20, 2025

I am a white British retired teacher of French and English who have voted for all the major parties at some time or other. I have never been arrested, unemployed or received benefits apart from child benefit. I believe that:

- Mass immigration (especially by Muslims) is destroying our culture.
- MUSLIMS will form a majority in England within a few decades leading to civil war.
- The criminal justice system is corrupt and traitorous.
- The civil service, local councils and public bodies in general are working against the people.
- Your government is destroying jobs - and indeed basic freedoms.
- the most senior positions in the cabinet are held by morons: (Starmer, Reeves, Rayner, Milliband).
- What little democracy we have in our country is under threat from a quasi-Marxist government elected by fewer than 21% of voters.

I imagine I therefore fit your party's description of "Far Right", but being so labeled by the Far Wrong has become a badge of honour. I hate to be negative, but your government is by far the worst in living and probably dead memory. Worst? Yes: full of self-righteous class hatred and utter incompetence; spiteful and downright nasty - except to your core vote: civil servants and Muslims - and indeed train drivers, to whom you gave an obscene payrise.

- THE VAT MEASURE re private schools is pure and spiteful class hatred that has caused misery to untold thousands of decent citizens and the closure of many private schools with huge loss of jobs - and for very little income. It was utterly stupid.
- THE TAX RISES on farmers, small businesses and others have already led to many redundancies, business failures and again untold stress to decent hard-working people who are the ones who pay for your vast gold-plated civil servant pensions and benefits totally out of control.
- Apparently one millionaire leaves the UK every 45 minutes. Marxists may not like millionaires, but they spend money in the UK, which creates and maintains jobs. Many also invest here creating more jobs. Only countries such as North Korea can afford to do without rich people, and we should be free to become rich. Why not? Most of the rich have earned their wealth, and they all pay a lot of taxes. One millionaire less every day is going to increase our debt and reduce jobs. Reeves' budget was the most stupid one I have ever experienced - far worse even than Gordon Brown's nonsenses.

- DIPLOMACY: Trying to give away the Chagos islands is truly idiotic in the current geopolitical climate and Trump will I hope stop that particular lunacy. What's next: the Falklands, Gibraltar?
- COMPENSATION to Jerry Adams et al? Are you INSANE? (silly question)
- TRUMP: Most of your senior people have slagged off Trump, accusing him of being a fascist. Well, he is democratically elected by umpteen millions of Americans sick of the left destroying their country with woke BS.. If you could be bothered to study his record instead of regurgitating leftist media lies you would see that he is far less racist than your party leaders.
- SATAN's REVENGE ON HUMANITY aka ISLAM: The proportion of Muslims in major cities continues to grow and thousands more arrive each week - all hotelled and on benefits costing well over ten million quid per day. We are the laughing stock of the world. Within a few decades MUSLIMS WILL FORM A MAJORITY, first in major cities then in the whole country. Can I ask what your plan is for when that happens and they demand Sharia law? You do have a plan, I suppose? Or do you think it won't happen? If the latter, then you are seriously deluded.

You ram diversity down our throats, but ISLAM is the least diverse cult on earth. Pls take a holiday in Iran, Afghanistan or any other Muslim dictatorship to understand. None of them respect "The Universal Declaration Of Human Rights". ALL are dictatorships, many EXTREMELY BRUTAL. Labour is supposed to defend the "human rights" that ISLAM spits on. Elon Musk has predicted civil war in the UK, and he does not have a habit of being wrong. Even Blair admitted there is a huge problem with ISLAM in the UK, yet you blithely carry on fawning to them for their votes.

Why are you not banning first-cousin marriage. FGS? That can lead to brain damage which of course does explain a lot. There are HUGELY more Muslims in prison than their proportion in the population; we have HALAL rammed down our throats; hideous Muslim "faith schools" and polygamy are permitted; there are more and more mosques every year. What the hell is wrong with you? Have any of you even READ the KORAN, the CV of Muhammed, the history of ISLAM? ALL ARE HORRIBLE and TERRIFYING.

GROOMING & RAPE? Be honest: The Labour Party, councils and police COVERED THIS UP for years "for the sake of diversity". When it DID appear in the media "ASIANS" were blamed, whereas we all now that it was (IS - it still goes on) mainly PAKISTANI MUSLIMS. Why do you treat the people with contempt? There HAS to be a full judicial enquiry where witnesses are legally compelled to give evidence. NOTHING ELSE will do now.

Making "Islamophobia" illegal? That is straight out of "1984". You are not going to make tens of millions of us stop despising and hating ISLAM - which we do. You are behaving like them. They force people to convert to their cult or die. You want to force us to like ISLAM or you will send us to prison? You are completely insane.

- MORALITY? China is the most hideously totalitarian dictatorship after NK and the most dangerous regime on the planet. China defends the satanic NK regime, regularly sends us viruses, spies on us, steals our secrets and is preparing war on the peaceful democratic state of Taiwan - yet the truly dreadful Reeves flies off to suck up to the totalitarian dictator Xi hoping to rescue herself from her moronic budget. It is nauseatingly pathetic.
- YOUR GOVERNMENT: Starmer is a Marxist zealot and indeed traitor who seems to hate our country. And FGS stop Milliband from destroying both our energy supplies and our countryside. As for Rayner, she is beyond despicable. "We will force councils to take their fair share of migrants." Seriously? FORCING people? Stalin would have been proud. Nobody voted for millions of migrants. We are overcrowded. Most of our infrastructure is collapsing. People are dying in NHS hospital corridors and A&E waiting to see a doctor. Yet more and more migrants pour in, all paid for by taxpayers, who are now a minority of the adult population. Yes, over half the adults in the country depend on benefits paid for by the working minority - and the latter are becoming even more minor after Reeves' insane budget.
- LONDON is reeling under the tax proposals; pubs and theatres are struggling; the City is under threat; The dreadful Khan is presiding over a Muslim takeover in our capital absolutely riddled with crime - yet he is now the titled equal of Sir Winston Churchill. UTTER LUNACY.

What are you backbenchers doing about all this? Nothing as far as I can see. Rosie Duffield got out, as any sane and moral MP would do. This is not going to end well, Ms Billington, and only Labour backbenchers can save us, since your cabinet is made up of quasi-Marxist lunatics who make the local village idiot look like Einstein.

All this is on the basis of TWENTY-ONE PER CENT of eligible votes and THIRTY-THREE PER CENT of actual votes. You do not have a mandate to act like a dictatorship. This is not "democracy" - but none of you seem to care - you just plough on with extraordinarily nasty and harmful taxation and other measures, increasing the size of the civil service instead of reducing it. Working from home? Seriously? The COVID epidemic is over FGS.

Ms Billington. You represent ALL your constituents, not just those who voted for you - and the majority of us are sick of your government already. You have no long-term future in politics unless something radical is done: getting rid of Starmer would be a start - though not if you replace him with Corbyn, Rayner, Reeves, Lammy or Milliband. Actually there is nobody in the current Labour party I can respect - and that was never the case in the past even when I did not vote labour. And now you have brought back Mandelscum? What's next? Blair, Brown, Corbyn? After all, Starmer said that the latter would make a better P.M. than Johnson.

The dinosaur parties in the HOC have never in my lifetime been so despised. Are you happy with this situation? If not, what are you doing about it?

I have to admit to being in despair. There is actually only ONE thing you are doing right: supporting Ukraine as much as is feasible. Dictatorships are the mortal enemy of Humanity, yet you fawn to CHINA and ISLAM - both vile dictatorships. It does not make sense.

I wish things were better for you personally, but ignoring the Truth is not going to help.

Yours Sincerely
